

Conservatoire Applications 2023 Entry

Key information for music and performing arts students

Information

- Use the link <https://www.ucas.com/conservatoires> to research general information about conservatoire courses.
- Use the link <https://www.ucas.com/conservatoires/how-apply-through-ucas-conservatoires> for advice on completing the online application form. Make sure you have read Section 9 on References - you need both an academic and a practical reference for each of your course choices, and you can download copies from this link.

Applying

You can find the UCAS Conservatoires Apply form by clicking on the  icon at the top right corner of the UCAS website (any page). Click 'students' and then scroll down the Student sign in page and select the Conservatoires option. You are responsible for completing your application and submitting it to UCAS by the relevant deadline.

Your Academic Reference will come from College and you should quote your referee details as: Emma Young, Principal of Godalming College. Email address college@godalming.ac.uk

Your Practical Reference should come from the teacher most familiar with your practical work – a music, dance or drama teacher, for example. They do not need to be teaching you here at College.

Action

You need to email the Careers Department via careers@godalming.ac.uk to let us know that you are applying and will need an academic reference prepared. You will also need to forward us copies of your reference forms with the details section completed (name, course applied for) – one form for each course you are applying to. Make sure you keep your Personal Tutor informed about your application.

Key Dates

- Key dates for 2023 entry
 - 15 July 2022 – UCAS Conservatoires Apply for 2022 goes live.
 - 3 October 2022 - deadline for Conservatoire music applications for 2023 entry, but please check the individual Conservatoire websites very carefully, including the dates by which they require supporting documents such as references to be sent.
 - 25 January 2023 – deadline for 2022 entry to most undergraduate dance, drama, or musical theatre courses at Conservatoires.

Further help

If you have any questions about the application process for Conservatoires, please email the Careers Department at careers@godalming.ac.uk